SWEDEN

The schools of Sweden will open Monday, August 29. Miss Merrill will teach at the Haskell; Miss Moulton at the Center and Miss Merrill at Black Mt.

Mrs. Isabel Hildon will convey the pupils from the Rillon District to the Haskell school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randall, Roy Johnson and Mrs. Clara Spaulding attended the funeral of James H. Hamilton at Waterford, who formerly lived at the Orchard House in South Harrison. Mr. Hamilton was 73 years old and lived in Gorham. He was visiting relatives in Waterford when he died at the next farm to his birthplace. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elsie Hamilton and a son, James P. of Gorham and a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Gurney of Burlington, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Libby, who have spent the summer with relatives here, have returned to Waverlegan, Conn., where he is principal of the school there.

Mr. Alvin P. Ricker celebrated his 86th birthday on Saturday, August 13th. Mr. Ricker is very well and unusually keen and smart for one of his years. He received many congratulations from a host of friends.

The Trumbull Players were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dana M. Stuart on Saturday, Aug. 6. After a very bountiful lunch, the afternoon was spent in exploring the farm. Its large raspberry patch was a source of great pleasure. Group pictures were taken and then they dressed in old fashioned costumes from the attic, and gave an impromptu show which consisted of ukulele playing, singing, dancing, etc., which was greatly enjoyed by all. With many regrets that the day was so short, they left to prepare for the show in the evening.

Those enjoying the good time were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Trumbull and little Miss Virginia Trumbull, Miss Ada Dalton, Miss Florence Brower, Mrs. Kathleen Craig, Miss Marjorie Webber, Arthur Hebert, Robert Collins, Gerrie Butler and Reginald Seavey and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Shedd.

Dances will be held at Academy Hall each Tuesday evening. Music is by Shaw's Orchestra.
